

Volume V.

Jackson, Kentucky, Friday, March 23, 1906.

No. 22.

TRADE AT THE Star Store.
BIG BARGAIN CENTER FOR CLOTHING
Shoes, Hats, and a Fine Line of
LADIES' DRESS GOODS

Skirts, Jackets, Silk and Woolen Waists, and Ladies' Trimmed Hats.

A Handsome Line of Ladies' Furs.

Trunks, Carpets, Mattings and Silks. A Big Line of Notions and a Good Assortment of

LADIES' AND GENTS' UNDERWEAR

The Latest Styles in Mens' Shirts. Mens' and Boys' Overcoats at Reduced Prices. An Elegant Line of Children's Cloaks, which we are almost giving away. Please come and examine our stock and prices. We have everything usually kept in a First-class Department Store. We can save you money. Goods shown with pleasure.

Highest Market Price Paid for Produce and Furs.

FIRESTEIN & EUSTER
PROPRIETORS STAR STORE,
College Avenue,
JACKSON, KY.

The Busy Man's Line BETWEEN
Louisville, Evansville, St. Louis and Southwest

IS VIA

LOUISVILLE, HENDERSON & ST. LOUIS RY
"HENDERSON ROUTE"

PULLMAN SLEEPERS FREE RECLINING CHAIR CARS

Special Round-trip Homeseekers' Rates to southwest and west first and third Tuesdays February and March, 1906.

Special Tourist Rates to Colorado, Texas, Mexico, and New Mexico on sale daily until April 30. Limit to return May 31, 1906.

Second-class Colonist Rates to southwest. Tickets on sale first and third Tuesdays of February and March, 1906.

Second-class Colonist Rates to California and Northwest. Tickets on sale daily February 15th to April 7th, 1906.

ASK US FOR RATES.

J. H. GALLAGHER,
Traveling Passenger Agent.

E. J. IRWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

W. H. Henderson,
Ayres Street, Opp. Post Office,
LEXINGTON, KY.

ORINO
Laxative Fruit Syrup

Pleasant to take

The new laxative. Does not gripe or nauseate.
Cures stomach and liver troubles and chronic constipation by restoring the natural action of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Refuse substitutes. Price 50c.
JACKSON DRUG CO.

FOR SALE.

One house and lot, with about two acres of ground, within one-half mile of the court house.

Also, nine-twelfths interest in the John Robertson farm, which is situated about 1½ miles above Jackson. Any one wanting a bargain will do well to call on

D. G. ROBINSON.

Jackson, Ky.

NOTICE.

All persons owing J. M. Osborn are hereby notified to pay their accounts to the undersigned trustee without delay or further notice
and all persons having claims against said J. M. Osborn are notified to present same, properly proven to J. L. MCCOY, Trustee for J. M. Osborn.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS
WITH Dr. King's
New Discovery
FOR CONSUMPTION
Price
COUGHS and COLDs
50c & $1.00
Free Trial.

Burst and Quickest Cure for all
THROAT and LUNG TROU-BLEs, or MONEY BACK.

The Two Vanreys

By BOOTH TARKINGTON
Author of "The Gentleman from Indiana" and "Monsieur Beaucaire"

Copyright, 1902, by S. S. McClure Co.

JOES

"But you haven't told why you broke the guitar?"
"It's time you did, I see, pluck it out!" I ought to have thought of the hands that played to her." And out of his guitar singing to her?

"She was right," interrupted
Miss Betty wearily. She had danced
long and hard, and she was very tired.
Mrs. Tanberry's staccato laugh came
out irrepressibly. "All the vagabonds
do, princess," she cried. "And I think
they are getting it."

"He needed a lesson," interrupted
Miss Betty wearily. She had danced
long and hard, and she was very tired.
Mrs. Tanberry's staccato laugh came
out irrepressibly. "All the vagabonds
do, princess," she cried. "And I think
they are getting it."

"No, no; I don't mean it." "We've turned their heads, my dear, between us you and I, and we'll have to turn 'em again, or they'll break their necks looking over their shoulders at us, the owls!" She pressed the girl's hand affectionately. "But you'll let me say something just once and forgive me
because we're the same foolish age, you know. It's only this: The next young man you suppose, take him off in a corner. Lead him away from the crowd where he won't have to stand and let them look at him afterward.
That's all, my dear, and you mustn't worry about me."

"I'm not sorry," said Miss Betty hotly.
"I'm not sorry."

"No, no," said Mrs. Tanberry soothingly.
"It was better this time to do just what you did. I'd have done it myself, to make quite sure he would keep away—because I like him."

"I'm not sorry," said Miss Betty again.
"I understand she knew of the quarrel," he said thoughtfully. "I saw that the other evening when I helped her
out of the crowd. She spoke of it to the way home, I remember. But how
did she know that you were Vanrevel?
No one in town would be apt to mention
that to you."

"No, but she did know, you see?"
"Yes," replied Mr. Gray slowly. "So
it seems. Probably her father told her
to avoid you and described you so that she recognized you as the man who
caught the kitten."

He paused and looked at Tom, who
continued to pace up and down the

"It seems that I played once too often,"
he said. "I went there late a rose wreath.
Not many people there.
As always I hope that there
it might not interfere be."

Perhaps just then Vanrevel would
have wished to hear him sing again
anything in the world rather than that, for on Cralley's lips it carried too much meaning tonight, after the voice in the garden. And Tom lingered no
more near the betraying silver of light
beneath the door than he had by the
gap in the hedge, but went steadily on

deep anxiety knitted Cralley's brow.

"I understand she knew of the quarrel," he said thoughtfully. "I saw that
the other evening when I helped her
out of the crowd. She spoke of it to the way home, I remember. But how
did she know that you were Vanrevel?
No one in town would be apt to mention
that to you."

"No, but she did know, you see?"

"Yes," replied Mr. Gray slowly. "So
it seems. Probably her father told her
to avoid you and described you so that
she recognized you as the man who
caught the kitten."

He paused and looked at Tom, who
continued to pace up and down the

CHAPTER XI.

CRALEY came home the next day with a new poem, but no
fish. He lounged up the stairs late in the afternoon, humming cheerfully to himself and, dropping his rod in a corner of Tom's office, laid the poem on the desk before his partner, "clucked softly and requested Mr. Vanrevel to set the rhymes to music immediately."

"Try it on your instrument," he said.
"It's a simple verse about nothing but stars, and you can work it out in twenty minutes with the guitar."

"It is broken," said Tom, not looking up from his work.

"Broken? When?"

"Who broke it?"

"It fell from the table in my room."

"How? Easily mended, isn't it?"

"I think I shall not play it soon again."

Cralley swung his long legs off the sofa and abruptly sat up. "What's this?" he asked gravely.

Tom pushed his papers away from him, rose and went to the dusty window that looked to the west, where, at the end of the long street, the sun was setting behind the rule of charred timbers.

"It seems that I played once too often," he said.

Cralley was thoroughly astonished.
He went to his friend and dropped a hand lightly on his shoulder. "What made you break the guitar? Tell me."

"What makes you think I broke it?"
asked his partner sharply.

"Tell me why you did it," said Cralley.

And Tom, pacing the room, told him,
while Cralley stood in silence looking him eagerly in the eye whenever Tom turned his way. The listener interrupted seldom. Once it was to exclaim:

forehead and spoke aloud, while, from horizon to horizon, the night air grew thick with the whispered laughter of observing hobgoblins.

"And even if there had been no star-way, we could have slid down the lose line!"

He retraced his steps, a tall, gray figure moving slowly through the blue darkness, and his lips formed the heartsick shadow of a smile when he found that he had unconsciously turned into Caroway street. Presently he came to a gap in a hedge, through which he had sometimes stolen to hear the sound of a harp and a girl's voice singing,
but he did not enter there tonight,
though he paused a moment, his head
bowed on his breast.

There came a sound of voices. They
seemed to be moving toward the hedge,
toward the gap where he stood, one a man's, eager, quick, but very musical;
the other a girl's, a rich and clear con-
tralto that passed into Tom's soul like
a psalm of rejoicing and like a scintilla-tion of flame. He shivered and moved away quickly, but not before the man's voice, somewhat louder for the moment, came distinctly from the other side of the hedge.

"There came a sound of voices. They
seemed to be moving toward the hedge,
toward the gap where he stood, one a man's, eager, quick, but very musical;
the other a girl's, a rich and clear con-
tralto that passed into Tom's soul like
a psalm of rejoicing and like a scintilla-
tion of flame. He shivered and moved
away quickly, but not before the man's
voice, somewhat louder for the moment, came distinctly from the other
side of the hedge.

"After all," said the voice, with a ripple of laughter—"after all, weren't you a little hard on that poor Mr.
Gray?"

Tom did not understand, but he knew the Police. It was that of Cralley Gray.
He heard the same voice again that night and again stood unseen. Long after midnight he was still tramping
the streets on his lonely rounds when he chanced to pass the House, which hostelry bore to the uninhabited
air the appearance of having closed its doors to all hospitality for the night in strict compliance with the law of the city fathers, yet a slender wraith of bright light might be discovered under the street door of the bar-room.

From within the merry retreat issued an upward of shouting, raucous laughter
and the pounding of glasses on tables, heralding all too plainly the hyperactivity of the landlord and possibly that of the city fathers also. Tom knew what company was gathered
there—gamblers, trinkmen, drunkards, farmers, men from the river steamers making riot with their boats lay at the wharf, with a motley gathering of good-for-nothings or the bark allies and tipping clerks from the Main street stores. There came loud cries for a song, and in answer the voice of Cralley rose over the general din, somewhat hoarse and never so muddled when he sang, yet so touchingly clear when he spoke, yet so touching in his dramatic-ness that soon the noise fell away, and the roisterers sat quiet to listen. It was not the first time Ben Jonson's song had stirred
a disreputable company:

"I sent thee late a rose wreath.
Not many people there.
As always I hope that there
it might not interfere be."

Perhaps just then Vanrevel would
have wished to hear him sing again
anything in the world rather than that,
for on Cralley's lips it carried too much
meaning tonight, after the voice in
the garden. And Tom lingered no
more near the betraying silver of light
beneath the door than he had by the
gap in the hedge, but went steadily on

deep anxiety knitted Cralley's brow.

"I understand she knew of the quarrel," he said thoughtfully. "I saw that
the other evening when I helped her
out of the crowd. She spoke of it to the way home, I remember. But how
did she know that you were Vanrevel?
No one in town would be apt to mention
that to you."

"No, but she did know, you see?"

"Yes," replied Mr. Gray slowly. "So
it seems. Probably her father told her
to avoid you and described you so that
she recognized you as the man who
caught the kitten."

He paused and looked at Tom, who
continued to pace up and down the

round of foot and hubbub lightly to himself. The door of the police was closed. Cralley did not look in, but freely appeared on the opposite side of the street and offered his services to the boy who toiled at the counters.

The bell had almost ceased to ring
when a lady, dressed plainly in black,
but graceful and tall, came rapidly out of Caroway street, turned at the corner
by the little drug store and went toward the church. The boy who left station for Cralley's benefit broke off in the middle of a word.

He overtook her on the church steps,
and they went in together.

That afternoon Fauchon informed Tom how beautiful her hair looked had been to her. He had brought her a great bouquet of violets and lilies of the valley and had taken her to the cemetery to place them on the grave of her baby brother, whose birthday it was. Tears came to Fauchon's eyes as she spoke of her lover's goodness and of how wonderfully he had talked to her.

"He was the only one who remembered that this was poor Jean's birthday," she said and added, "He came just after breakfast and asked me to go out there with him."

[TO BE CONTINUED]

THE DOG LAW.

The dog law, which has passed
both branches of the Legislature and which will become a law by June, is quite comprehensive. The following are some of its provisions:

Every dog over four months old
shall be taxed.

Every person who keeps or harbors
a dog on his place, or allows it to be done, shall be taxed.

The Assessor shall note the name,
kind, color, size, age and sex in the Assessor's book.

The tax on dogs shall be kept as a separate fund and to be used to pay for sheep killed by dogs.

Elaborate provisions are made for proving the loss of sheep and claims for damage shall be acted on by the Fiscal Court.

The owner of the dog shall be liable for damages done by his dog, but if the persons bitten are upon the premises of the owner at night, no damage shall be allowed.

All dogs listed for taxation shall be regarded as property and the owner may recover for all damage done to his dog.

Every person who owns and keeps a dog and fails to list it with the Assessor, shall be fined ten dollars for each dog, and if he fails or refuses to pay the tax, he shall be fined twenty-five dollars for each offense.

The Sheriff and his deputies and the Constables shall kill, or cause to be killed, all dogs on which the tax is not paid, and shall be allowed fifty cents for each dog killed.

<p

A. T. C. & CO.
OFFICE IN CRAWFORD BUILDING,
JACKSON, KY.

FRIDAY, MARCH 23.

L. C. Roark, attorney, was over on Friday Monday representing James B. Strong in a forcible detainer suit.

All persons owing the firm of Noble & Noble, either by notes or accounts, will call and settle at once, or collection will be enforced.

Re. full
Noble, Noble.

Irvine McDaniel, of Ronseau, was here last week purchasing a stock of goods for his new store just below the mouth of Wolfe Creek. He has just built a new store house at that place. He was formerly in business near the mouth of Wolfe Creek.

Crawford have a new, ad in our paper this week. Call on them and see their bargains. Those who advertise want your trade and you can safely count on them treating you better than those who don't.

The contests over some of the county offices in Perry county, have been decided in favor of the contestants, giving the office of county judge to H. T. Crawford over E. C. Duff; sheriff to S. B. Holliday over M. C. Eversole, and collector to Ira Combs. The contestants will appeal to the Court of Appeals. The races were very close there last November, Duff beating Crawford by only 7 votes on the face of the returns. Contests were at once instituted with the above result.

Talbot Holliday, of Hazard, is a revenue man and was engaged in the battle with moonshiners in Knott county a short time ago, wherein Perry Sloan and Faro Sloan were killed and H. Short and John P. Sloan, the father of Perry and Faro, were wounded on the moonshiners' side and Malcolm Holliday, Deputy Collector and brother of Talbot was wounded, was in Berea last week visiting his brother, G. D. Holliday. Malcolm Holliday, who was wounded in the battle, is now well on the way to recovery and is in the Revenue Office at Danville, filling the place of Samuel Collins, who will take Holliday's place for a while until Malcolm gets well of his wounds at which time he will fill his old place, Berea News.

Spring and Summer Goods.

We have just gotten in a nice selected stock of Spring and Summer goods which we will sell at a very close margin. Our specialties are Embroideries, Laces and White Goods of all kinds. Our stock of Clothing and Shoes are worth inspection before buying elsewhere. Thanking you for favors and wishing a continuance of the same. Yours respectfully,

CRAWFORD & CO.

Mt. Sterling Court.

March county court day at Mt. Sterling was a raw, dismal day and only a small crowd was in town. There was about 1,250 cattle on the market and sales were slow. The quality was inferior while prices ranged about $1,000 per head, being brought to 4 of a score. The entertainments of the day were Jackson. Mr. Poyell had one of the fine stereopticons and was well confidened. The public will appreciate the entertainments which will be "The Sign of the Cross," Wilson Barrett's famous story of the Christian Martyrs' of the time of Nero. The pictures will be works of beauty and rare art and the lecture is of thrilling interest from start to finish. The girls' physical culture club, in their handsome new uniforms, will give a special drill as a part of the entertainment. Proceeds to help pay for the stereopticon. Admission, adults 25 cents; children, 15 cents.

At Old Kentucky Home.

Representative John C. Griffith, of Breathitt county, introduced the following resolution in the closing hours of the regular session of the General Assembly, but in the excitement of preparations for getting home he could not secure consideration of it, and the house adjourned without passing it. The resolution follows:

Whereas, the work of the Legislature being completed and it becomes necessary to adjourn sine die;

Whereas, the members of this House may never meet again until they arrive on the other shore, be it

Resolved, That now, before final adjournment, the members, for old time's sake, and as a tribute to the Grand Old Commonwealth, sing that soul stirring song, "My Old Kentucky Home," with all the pathos and feeling of which our voices are capable and with all the melody and tenderness which this old song can inspire.

JOHN C. GRIFFITH,
Member Ninety second District.

More than twenty rafts of logs were started down Quicksand last week but none got out on account of the smallness of the tide.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EKAT

Levi and B. W. Collins visited relatives in Owlsley county last week. It had been thirteen years since Levi had seen his aunts and cousins and B. W. Collins had never met any of them. They had very pleasant time and were pleased to meet their relatives. B. W. Collins is teaching back to Owlsley teach.

NED

Isabel Grigsby, wife of John Grigsby, is very sick.

S. H. Combs is building another room to his dwelling.

John H. Combs has been qualified for deputy clerk of Breathitt county.

Pearl Campbell's wife has been seriously ill, but is some better. It is to be hoped she will recover. She is a daughter of Uncle Lute Feltner.

H. S. Noble, Z. H. Miller and McCager Nease have given up their hot air railroad project, as they have figured out the matter and found that gas will not build railroads.

JETT'S CREEK.

Proctor Little is on the sick list. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Little, a girl.

William K. Terry and Elisha Johnson arrived home on the 21st from Berea, where they had been attending college.

The price of clothes wire has gone down in this vicinity. Mrs. Asbury Spicer is giving all of her neighbors a little kindness.

NEW LAWS.

Appropriating money for state geological survey.

Bill increasing annual pension for Institution for the Blind.

Bill repealing charter of High School.

Bill regulating child labor and factories.

Bill providing for a tuberculosis hospital in Louisville, Kentucky.

Bill fixing a penalty for abandoning children.

on Banking & Trust Company

Savings Department pays 3 per cent on Time Deposits. Safety Vault Boxes for Rent.

A GENERAL BANKING AND TRUST BUSINESS.

Acts as Administrator and Executor. Serves as Guardian and Trustee. Buys and Sells Stocks and Bonds.

Accounts of Eastern and Central Kentucky Banks Solicited.

INTEREST PAID ON BALANCES.

CAPITAL STOCK.....$ 600,000.00
STOCKHOLDERS' LIABILITIES.....600,000.00
ABSOLUTE PROTECTION TO DEBTORS.....1,200,000.00

LOANS MADE ON REAL ESTATE AND PERSONAL SECURITIES. SECURITY PROVIDED ON OFFICIAL BOND. OUR FACILITIES ARE AMPLE FOR THE EFFICIENT TRANSACTION OF ALL BUSINESS HANDLED BY CONSERVATIVE TRUST COMPANIES.

CORNER SHORT AND MARKET STREETS,

LEXINGTON, KY.

for J. E. Lang.

Daniel McIntosh will hold services at the new church on South Quicksand Sunday.

The people have got their rafts in a bad shape on Quicksand. They have got them stuck from Wolfe Creek to the Roark Bar, and lots of ties rafted.

CAMPTON.

Miss Emily Byrd has a good trade at her millinery store.

Miss Amanda Howard will visit friends in Jackson in a short time.

Roy Dean, son of Walter Dean, has been quite sick for some time, but is improving.

DeWitt Taylor's house was burned Monday with all its contents, including $200 in cash, which he had locked up in a trunk.

TROUBLESOME.

Jeff Williams and Susie Wilson were married last week.

A new postoffice named Ary has been established at Pigeon Roost.

Alice, the wife of Clayton Stacy, is critically ill with lung trouble.

Wayne Smith, son of Esq. John Smith, left last Friday for Dwarf, where he expects to be married to a daughter of William Stacy, best known as "Long-Bill."

PRIMROSE.

The school at Union closed last Wednesday.

Your correspondent will publish at St. Helens next Sunday.

Noah Lucas and wife have moved from White Pine back to this section.

The test well being bored near Union was brought in with only a little oil, hence the company have relinquished their leases.

Z. T. Cockerham, who has been running the Combs House at Campton, has returned to his farm to raise pigs and chickens and to enjoy the fruit of his labors.

We understand that G. D. Hieronymous is smiling again, as it is another boy, and Dr. Peters, his nearest neighbor, has caught the inspiration and he is smiling at the same cause.

NEW LAWS.

Senate bill allowing teachers credit for days they attend county institutes if their schools are in session.

Senate bill providing for placing automatic sprinkling plants in the insane asylums.

House bill fixing a penalty for theft of water from water companies.

House bill adding orchard grass and timothy to the list of seeds that must not be adulterated or mixed.

Senate bill to prevent stock running in streets of the fifth-class towns.

House bill requiring abandoned

gas and oil wells to be plugged up.

House bill repealing the rights of banks to do business.

Senate bill authorizing banks and trust companies to close at any hour they wish.

Senate bill authorizing inspection of commercial food

and appropriating money

for state geological survey.

Bill increasing annual pension for Institution for the Blind.

Bill repealing charter of High School.

Bill regulating child labor and factories.

Bill providing for a tu-

ber hospital in Louisville,

Kentucky.

Bill fixing a penalty for abandoning children.

The Local Option Bill.

The Local Option Bill passed the House and Senate. The bill provides that:

All counties, with the exception of those having cities of the first, second, third and fourth classes, and the counties outside these cities are made separate units.

If the county votes "wet" no precinct in that county can be "wet."

On the other hand, if a county votes "wet," any precinct in that county, which previous to the election was "dry," shall remain "dry."

The same rule applies as well to the cities of the first, second, third and fourth classes.

There are at present 119 counties in the State. Sixty-eight have local option. The temperance people claim that under the bill passed twenty-seven more will be added to their column and that they have a great chance to carry other units.

DO YOU WANT A CHILD?

The Kentucky Children's Home Society has sixty boys and girls between the ages of three and nine for whom they desire good Christian homes. These children are unusually bright and attractive.

Senate bill appropriating $5,000 a year to maintain Kentucky Historical Society.

Senate bill authorizing the opening and widening streets and alleys in Louisville.

Senate bill increasing salary of Governor's private secretary to $2,000.

House bill compelling children to support their indigent parents.

House bill permitting defendant in damage suits for assault and battery to plead mitigating circumstances.

House bill making theft or destruction of tobacco plants a felony.

Senate bill allowing teachers credit for days they attend county institutes if their schools are in session.

Senate bill providing for placing automatic sprinkling plants in the insane asylums.

House bill fixing a penalty for theft of water from water companies.

Senate bill adding orchard grass and timothy to the list of seeds that must not be adulterated or mixed.

Senate bill to prevent stock running in streets of the fifth-class towns.

House bill requiring abandoned

gas and oil wells to be plugged up.

House bill repealing the rights of banks to do business.

Senate bill authorizing banks and trust companies to close at any hour they wish.

Senate bill authorizing inspection of commercial food.

Yours very respectfully,

George L. Schom,

State Supt.

CINCINNATI MARKET.

CINCINNATI, March 21.—Hogs:

strong, butchers and shippers,

$6 45 @ 6 50; common, $5 25 @ 6 35.

Cattle steady; fair and good shippers, $5 50 @ 5 25; common, $3 00.

Sheep strong; 3 25 @ 5 50. Lambs active, $4 25 @ 7 50

FOLYSHONEYANDTAR

for children, safe, sure. No opiates.

DAY BROS.

COMPANY

Wholesale - and - Retail

have the most complete stock of

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

Ever brought to Jackson Consisting of

Dry Goods,

Notions,

Clothing,

Hats,

Shoes.

We have the finest line of shoes in Eastern Kentucky. Our men's shoes are of the latest style.

The Breathitt News.
Published Every Friday.
CASH SUBSCRIPTIONS $1 A YEAR

J. WISE HAGINS, Editor.

Local and Personal

Purity Flour at C. Hadden's.
Circuit court will begin at Beattyville next Monday.

Stop with Hart Bros., at Reed hotel when in Lexington.

Clarence Hadden has just gotten in a nice line of Fine Candles.

O. H. Pollard left Saturday on a business trip to Catlettsburg.

J. W. Ford is building a boom at the mouth of Quicksand for ties.

Services at the Methodist church at the regular hours next Sunday.

A large number of ties were brought to market on the tide of last week.

Kenton Hagens is building a new dwelling on his farm near Stevenson.

Miss Hattie Richmond, of Ewing, Va., is visiting the family of J. B. McLin.

G. W. Fleenor and Hugh Ridell left here Tuesday to attend Hindman court.

Miss Bettie Cope, of Taulbee, has been visiting friends here during the past week.

Read the new ad of the Jackson Drug Co. They talk to you about Paints this week.

Judge S. H. Patrick has so improved as to be able to come out on the street again this week.

S. H. Stidham & Son have closed out their store on Broadway and their store-house is now for rent.

Will S. Hopper, assistant cashier of the Jackson Deposit Bank, made a business trip to Lexington last week.

A. C. Carpenter, postal clerk on the O. & K., has moved to town and has taken a residence on the Heights.

New Tomatoes, Lettuce, Onions, Radish, Rhubarb, Asparagus and Kale Friday and Saturday at C. Hadden's.

James Rowland came home Monday to visit his family. He has a job at Yerkes, Perry county, with G. G. Brown.

Miss Delphia Back, daughter of James R. Back, has been quite sick for the past two weeks, but she is improving now.

The three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Martin, of Roalds, was burned to death last Monday by its clothes catching fire from a grate.

Miss Margaret Basket returned last week from the city where she had been purchasing a new spring stock of millinery for Day Bros. Company.

Solomon Shepherd, of Lambrie, who had been attending a business college at Lexington for several weeks, returned home last week.

John Blanton's child, who was hurt by a tree falling on him, an account of which appeared in our last issue, is improving and will recover.

Green Shepherd and wife returned last week from Louisville where they had been buying a stock of goods for W. R. Shepherd & Sons, of Lambrie.

Jesse C. Whittaker, of Chavies, Perry county, who has been attending the State College at Lexington for the past year, has been visiting his uncle, W. H. Whittaker, for several days.

Henry Williams of Bays, fell from his stable loft last Sunday evening and broke his arm just above the wrist. He came to town Monday and had Dr. Hogg to dress it. He is now getting along very well.

Joseph Lovelock, of Rousseau, was here Saturday. He started with two rafts of logs on the small tide in Quicksand but could not get any further than the Roark Bar, as several other rafts were stuck there.

The Board of Trustees of the town of Beattyville have awarded a contract for the building of a bridge across Crystal Creek to the Owego Bridge Company for $7,775. Now, if Lee county will build a bridge across the Kentucky River at Beattyville, it will be a long step for Lee County's advancement.

J. D. Jones has just received a car load of furniture.

Mrs. J. S. Head is visiting friends in Richmond this week.

George H. Patrick, of Stanton, was here this week supplying our merchants with shoes.

J. B. McLin left last Saturday for Lime Fork to look after his timber interests there.

Major H. B. Wright, manager for Taylor & Crate, of Buffalo, N. Y., went to Lexington last Saturday on business.

Rev. Stephen Carpenter, who has been sick for some time, had so far recovered as to be able to come to town Wednesday.

M. Paxton Davis, acting cashier of the Jackson Deposit Bank, has moved into C. B. Thompson's house on College avenue.

The Jackson Bottling Works began work last week making pop for the warm season which they expect to come some time next summer.

Mrs. Polly Davis, of Smith Branch, was visiting her son, J. M. E. Davis, last week. She had an operation performed for a cancer on her forehead last fall. She thinks it is coming back again.

Sunday service at the Baptist church at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., Rev. W. H. Setzer pastor. Morning subject, "Is It Worth While," evening subject, "The Cost of Intemperance in America."

The Business Mens' Club have just installed a new Hagan gasoline engine at their club rooms to take the place of another engine which was too small to furnish power sufficient for the lights, etc., necessary for the building.

Beattyville has been by an act of the Legislature, declared a city of the fifth class. Jackson has been eligible for the fifth class for several years, but no one has taken the trouble to have it declared so by the proper authorities.

Anson White, who has been living in Wisconsin for the past three years, has returned to his former home in this county. He has been in bad health there and thought it better to return home, as the severe climate of the northwest did not agree with him.

Rev. W. W. Powell preached Tuesday night at Canal City to a large and appreciative audience. A petition was signed by the Presbyterians of that place asking the Presbytery of West Lexington to organize a Presbyterian church in Canal City. The Presbytery is to meet in Jackson on April 3 at the Presbyterian church.

Last Sunday at the morning service at the Presbyterian church sixteen members were received into the church on profession of faith. The new members were in a most tender and all were charge by the pastor, Rev. W. W. Powell and were received by the membership with a most cordial welcome. There will be several others to join next Sunday. All these are the results of the second revival meeting.

Rev. M. R. Cockman, who was formerly stationed at Athol and was a worker in the Soulwinners Society, has moved to Booneville, Ark. While in Athol he bought six Leghorn hens from M. & M. Hagens. In his letter to us he says: "The brown Leghorn chickens we purchased from you are dandies. They are regular egg machines. Wouldn't take $2.00 piece for them. Brought them along with the rest of the family."

It is claimed that if two or three flaxseed are planted in each hill of potatoes, potato bugs will not bother the vines at all. The above may or may not be true, but as the expense will not be very heavy in trying the experiment it will be worth while for potato raisers to try it next planting season, and if the seed does not accomplish what it is supposed to do to the bugs, they can go back to the old remedy and feed them on parsnips.

Another Railroad for Jackson. Articles of incorporation for a new railroad, the Kentucky Southwestern, have been filed in the office of the Clerk of Kenton county at Covington, which, it is declared in the application, will be 70 miles in length and traverse the counties of Breathitt, Perry, Knott and Letcher. The terminal will be near Jackson. The incorporators are all of Cincinnati.

3 Prepare for Easter.

NOW IS THE GOLDEN TIME THIS IS THE PLACE

Our equipment is complete. We want you to see

NEW LINE OF WHITE GOODS,

SILKS, LACES AND EMBROIDERIES,

LADIES' WAISTS, EMBROIDERED WAISTS,

PATTERNS, LADIES' BELTS AND COLLARS,

Ribbons, and many other NEW GOODS just received,

including a splendid stock of

Ladies', Gents' and Childrens' Shoes

for Spring.

We will try to make our store a pleasant and profitable place to trade. We feel that when you have gone through our store and learned our methods that you will join the others and become a good, loyal customer.

CRAWFORD & CO.

Witherspoon College,

BUCKHORN, PERRY CO., KY.

NORMAL COURSE.

SPECIAL TERM OF SIX WEEKS

Preparatory to the County Examinations

Begins Monday, March 26,

To be conducted by Experienced and Successful Instructors. All other exercises suspended and full time given to this work.

TUITION, ONE DOLLAR PER MONTH.

Room and Board in Dormitory, One Dollar and Twenty-five Cents per week; in private families, One Dollar and Fifty Cents. Address, REV. HARRY S. MURDOCH, Buckhorn, Ky.

Destroyed by Fire.

The residence of John Elliott Howard, who lives on Quicksand Creek, was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning. The fire originated from the chimney about 4 o'clock in the morning and was in such a headway when discovered that the family barely had time to escape. None of the household goods were saved. Mr. Howard was one of our best citizens. This loss falls heavily on him, as he has a large family and is not in good health and had no insurance.

Rev. Preston to Return in April.

CHICAGO, March 19, '06.

EDITORIAL NEWS:

Will you please tell your readers that I shall return to Jackson in time to hold services, the Lord willing, on the second Sunday in April, the same being the 8th, as follows: At the Homestead school house on Quicksand, at 10 o'clock; at the Seymour Chapman school house at 3 o'clock. I shall have with me one, and possibly two men, who are entering the work. I shall be glad to be back among my good friends again. All are invited to come out and hear the plain truth. Sincerely,

EDWIN T. PRESTON.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Mrs. Clerinda Fugate died at the home of her son, John Fugate, near Stevenson, last Monday of old age. She was about 85 years of age.

Mrs. Euamile Hays, widow of Peter Hays, died at her home on Stray Branch last Monday morning of heart trouble. Her husband Peter Hays, had died just nine days before.

Mrs. Florence Back, wife of Alex Back, and daughter of Granville Hounshell, of Shoulder Blade, died last Saturday night, of consumption. She leaves a husband and four children. Her funeral was conducted at her late residence Sunday by Rev. Lewis Hensley, after which her remains were buried in the family grave yard on the Holly Bush Fork of Shoulder Blade.

She was a consistent member of the Methodist church and left a testimony behind that she was going to the happy land and asked her friends to prepare to meet her on the other shore where sorrow and suffering will be felt no more.

We will sell goods for less money than any firm in town. Call and see for yourselves.

NOBLE & NOBLE.

An Important Decision.

County Judge S. S. Stacy, A. Allen and S. L. Stacy, very much elated over the suits

they had in the Court of Appeals of Kentucky on last Friday, which the won they matters in controversy involving about 5,000 acres of land and about $9,000 in cash.

These suits were appealed from the Knott circuit court and involved the lands on Coke's Fork of Buckhorn Creek, which S. S. Stacy has owned and claimed for many years. Taulbee and Allen had previously bought the timber from Stacy and became involved in the suits and their logs were taken and sold by orders of the townsmen. G. W. Fleenor, and he seems to be about as well pleased as his clients. We think this is quite a victory for Judge Fleenor, and is a continuation of his successful practice in the Court of Appeals. He has won ten successive cases in the Court of Appeals within a little over six months past. Quite an interest has been maintained by these suits on account of their involving several important legal questions of land titles in Eastern Kentucky.

NOTICE.

The partnership heretofore existing between S. H. Stidham and S. B. Stidham, under the firm name of S. H. Stidham & Son, of Jackson, Ky., has been dissolved by mutual consent. All persons owing said firm are requested to call and settle their outstanding accounts, as the business of the firm must be closed.

This March 20, 1906.
S. H. STIDHAM,
S. B. STIDHAM.

WATCHES,

CLOCKS,

SILVERWARE,

SILVER NOVELTIES,

CUT GLASS,

UMBRELLAS,

and all kinds of

FIRST CLASS JEWELRY.

S. D. FLEENOR,

JEWELER AND OPTICIAN,

JACKSON, KY.

Seventy good timber cutters wanted at once. Apply at Lee Rose, Owsley county.

K. & P. LUMBER CO.,

21-21 A. BETSCHE, Supt.

FREE BUS TO and FROM DEPOT.

GOOD LIVERY STABLE IN CONNECTION.

FLOYD DAY, President.

J. SAM'L HEAD, Jr. Cashier.

E. P. CRAWFORD, Vice Pres.

W. S. HOPPER, Ass't Cashier.

M. P. DAVIS, Acting Dishier.

ARLINGTON HOTEL

S. S. TAULBEE, PROP.

JACKSON, KY.

FIRST CLASS SAMPLE ROOMS.

JACKSON DEPOSIT BANK,

Jackson, Kentucky.

Paid up Capital and Surplus $27,100.00

and accounts of

ERS,

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

Lexington & Eastern Ry. O. & K. Railway.

Effective May 21st, 1905.

WINTER TIME TABLE, EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 22, 1905

WEST BOUND		WEST BOUND
No. 1 Daily Ex. Sunday	No. 2 Daily Ex. Sunday	No. 3 Daily Ex. Sunday	No. 4 Daily Ex. Sunday
AM. IV 7:10 Lv Jackson, O. & K. Junction Etna Oriskie Athol Tallega St. Helens Beattyville Jon. Tarenton Natural Bridge Stanton Clay City L. & E Junction Winchester Ar Lexington	PM. IV 7:13 1:22 8:24 8:24 8:24 7:16 7:16 7:26 8:24 8:24 9:10 9:23 10:10	PM. IV 7:25 2:30 2:34 2:34 2:40 2:50 3:14 3:16 8:26 8:26 4:01 4:30 5:08 6:08	PM. IV 1:10 Clay City 12:10 Lexington 12:20 4:26 12:24 4:40 12:30 4:05 11:55 3:52 2:00 3:38 11:30 3:10 8:00 8:00
AM. V 7:10 Lv Jackson O. & K. Junction Etna Oriskie Athol Tallega St. Helens Beattyville Jon. Tarenton Natural Bridge Stanton Clay City L. & E Junction Winchester Ar Lexington	PM. V 7:13 1:22 8:24 8:24 8:24 7:16 7:16 7:26 8:24 8:24 9:10 9:23 10:10	PM. V 7:25 2:30 2:34 2:34 2:40 2:50 3:14 3:16 8:26 8:26 4:01 4:30 5:08 6:08	PM. V 1:10 Clay City 12:10 Lexington 12:20 4:26 12:24 4:40 12:30 4:05 11:55 3:52 2:00 3:38 11:30 3:10 8:00 8:00

Nos. 1 and 2 will make close connection at O. & K. Junction with Nos. 3 and 4 for points on the Lexington & Eastern Railway.

M. L. CONLEY, Sept.

Louisville & Atlantic Ry.

Schedule in effect February 25, 1906

WEST BOUND.

A. M. P. M.

Lv Jackson 6:25 2:26

Ar Beattyville Junction 10:30 3:30

Ar Beattyville 10:50 8:45

Lv Irvine 12:26 5:20

Ar Richmond 1:30 6:25

Lv Richmond 1:35 6:00

Ar Valley View 2:02 6:28

" Nicholasville 2:27 6:58

" Versailles 2:26 7:55

" Louisville 6:15 10:45

EAST BOUND.

A. M. P. M.

Lv Louisville 6:10 8:30

Ar Versailles 9:10 6:10

10:20 7:12

10:47 7:35

11:15 8:05

Lv Louisville 11:25 8:45

12:25 7:00

Ar Beattyville 2:00 9:30

Ar Beattyville Junction 3:00 10:10

J. R. BARR, Gen. Mgr.

CHAS. SCOTT, G. P. A.

H. R. Smith G. F. & P. A. Versailles, Ky.

R. A. Wootton, S. A. Richmond.

ONE NIGHT OUT

Iorida
New Orleans

and Cubá

reached in comfort

via

QUEEN & CRESCENT

ROUTE

AND

SOUTHERN Ry.

THREE TRAINS A DAY

Chicago & Florida Special

In Service, January 1st, 1906.

Solid Pullman Train

Leave Cincinnati 8:00 A. M.

Lexington 10:30 A. M.

Danville 12:40 P. M.

Dinner and Dining Car for Jacksonville and St. Augustine via Tampa, or for Mobile, Pensacola and Atlanta.

Florida Limited

Solid Train

Leave Cincinnati 8:00 A. M.

Lexington 10:30 A. M.

Danville 12:40 P. M.

Dinner and Dining Car for Jacksonville and St. Augustine via Tampa, or for Mobile, Pensacola and Atlanta.

Queen & Crescent Special

Solid train Cincinnati, Lexington, Danville, New Orleans, and through to Tampa and St. Petersburg, and through to Mobile, Pensacola and Atlanta.

Winter tourist tickets now on sale at reduced rates.

Char. W. Zell, D. P. A., Cincinnati.

H. C. King, C. P. & T. A., Lexington, Ky.

W. A. Garrett, W. C. Dittmar, General Manager, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Here We Are!

The Celebrated

HANAN SHOE,

The Best on Earth.

PRICE $5.00 PRICE

For Sale By DAY BROS CO

Jackson, -- Kentucky.

Kodol DYSPEPSIA CURE
DIGESTS WHAT YOU EAT

The $1.00 bottle contains 2 fl. oz. in the trial size, which sells for 50 cents.

PREPARED ONLY AT THE LABORATORY OF

E. C. DEWITT & COMPANY, CHICAGO, ILL.

JACKSON DRUG CO.

Ask for 1906 Kodol Almanac and 200 Year Calendar.